

Please do not undo the no call list. I feel it is a basic freedom that we not be hounded by unsolicited calls in our homes during time that we should be spending with family.